

Privacy Notice

Your privacy is important to us and we want you to feel comfortable with how we use your personal information. This privacy notice sets out how Esher College handles your personal information, including when and why it is collected, how it's used, and your rights in relation to the personal data we hold.

This privacy notice will be reviewed regularly and any changes will be notified to you by posting an updated version on our website and, where possible, by contacting you via email.

What information do we collect about you?

The categories of information that we may collect about you are as follows:

- Basic information such as your name and information that is created through your contribution to the College as a governor such as your attendance at meetings and other events, register of interests, and questions and challenges recorded in minutes.
- Personal information, such as your contact details, personal statement and employment history
- Safeguarding records, such as training records and details about your DBS check.
- When using College IT systems your personal information will be recorded as part of security and audit logs. This will include details such as your username, IP address, details about your device and the times and dates you access specific services.
- CCTV footage of you may be captured when you are on the College campus.
- Health and safety information, such as accident records.

Where do we get information about you?

Most of the information we hold about you either comes directly from you, or is generated by us in the normal day-to-day operations of the College.

We also receive information from third parties, such as:

- Disclosure and Barring Service

Why we collect and use your information, and the lawful basis for doing so

The purposes for which we use your information and the legal basis on which we rely are as follows:

- As a governor, the majority of your personal information is processed in the public interest in order to allow you to carry out your duties.
- Some information is processed to fulfil our legal obligations, such as ensuring the safety of students.
- We also process your data where it is necessary for the pursuit of our legitimate interests, such as;
 - monitoring IT systems to ensure their security, availability and to improve the services we offer;
 - to enforce or protect our contractual or other legal rights, or to bring or defend legal proceedings;

- recording CCTV and monitoring of door/gate access logs to ensure the security and safety of the College campus and its community;

How long we keep your information

Your basic information will be kept indefinitely as part of the public record.

Personal information will be held for your period of service as a governor and then securely destroyed.

Safeguarding information will be kept for up to 6 years after the end of your service.

We keep CCTV footage for up to 30 days, unless a specific incident has occurred and the images are saved for an investigation. In this situation, the images may be stored for up to 6 years.

IT security and audit logs are kept for up to 12 months.

Who we share your information with

We may share your information with the following third parties:

- Disclosure and Barring Service
- Third parties acting on our behalf, such as;
 - IT services providers including Microsoft
 - IT recycling and secure disposal service providers, for the purpose of secure disposal of IT equipment
 - Auditors
- Courts, law enforcement agencies, and other emergency services as necessary to comply with a legal requirement, for the administration of justice, to protect vital interests, to protect the security or integrity of College operations, and to detect, investigate and prevent crime.
- The general public, via documents published on the College website.

Transferring your data outside of the European Economic Area

The majority of your information is stored and processed within the European Economic Area (EEA).

Your basic personal details, including your login details, name and email address will be shared with IT Service providers that host part, or all of their services outside of the EEA. In these situations, we ensure contractual obligations are in place to protect your personal data to the standard required in the UK.

Security

The College takes the security of your personal data very seriously. We have implemented strong organisational and technical security safeguards to prevent unauthorised disclosure or access to your information.

Data Sharing Agreements or contractual obligations are in place with all organisations we share your personal data with, and all data is transferred using strong encryption.

The College complies with all relevant data protection legislation.

Your rights

If you have any queries about this privacy notice or how we process your personal data, we ask you raise your concern with us in the first instance by contacting the Colleges Data Protection Officer:

The Data Protection Officer
Esher College
Weston Green Road
Thames Ditton
KT7 0JB

Email: dataprotectionofficer@esher.ac.uk
Telephone: +44 208 398 0291

If you are not satisfied with how we process your personal data, or how we have handled your query, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner. (<https://ico.org.uk/concerns>)

You can find out more about your rights under data protection legislation from the Information Commissioner's Office website: <https://www.ico.org.uk>.

Access to your information

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. Usually we will provide this information to you free of charge and within 30 days.

Transferring your data

You have the right to request a copy of your personal data in a commonly used machine-readable format such as CSV or Microsoft Excel XLSX so that you can transfer your data to another organisation. We have to provide this to you free of charge and process your request within 30 days. You can also ask us to send your data directly to another organisation.

Correcting mistakes

You have the right to request we update any information we hold about you if you think it is incorrect, incomplete or out of date.

If we believe the information we hold about you is correct we may refuse to update our records, but we will note your objection.

Objecting to how we process your data

Where we rely on Legitimate Interests or Public Interest as the legal basis for processing your personal data, you have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to us processing your personal data where you feel the processing has a disproportionate impact on your rights.

Withdrawing consent

We do not rely on consent as a lawful basis for processing any of your personal information.

Automated processing

We do not carry out any automated processing.

The right to be forgotten

You can ask us to erase your personal data in the following situations:

- The data is no longer necessary in relation to the purpose for which it was originally collected.

- You have objected to us processing the data and there is no overriding legitimate interest for us to continue the processing.
- Your personal data was unlawfully processed.
- Your personal data has to be erased in order to comply with a legal obligation.

We may in some circumstances refuse to erase your personal data. If we do this we will explain why, and our legal basis for doing so.

Restricted processing

In the following situations, you can tell us to stop or restrict the processing of your personal data. We will continue to store the data, but we will only be able to use it in the ways you specify.

- You have asked us to update your data, and you want us to stop using it until we have updated it.
- You have objected to the way in which we process your data and you want us to stop using it until we have finished evaluating your objection.
- We processed your data unlawfully and you want us to restrict access to the data instead of deleting it.
- We no longer need the data, but you require it to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.
