

Universities attending Higher Education Fair on Tuesday 21 March 2023

A Star Future (studying abroad)	London South Bank
Aberdeen	Loughborough
Aberystwyth	Manchester
Access 1st (support for disabled students)	Manchester Metropolitan
Arts University Bournemouth	Middlesex
Arts University Plymouth	Newcastle
Bath	Nottingham
Bath Spa	Nottingham Trent
Birmingham	Oxford Brookes
Brighton	Pearson College / Escape Studios
Brighton and Sussex Medical School	Peer Productions
Bristol	Plymouth
Brunel	Portsmouth
Bucks New	Ravensbourne
Cardiff	Reading
City	Regents University
Coventry	Richmond American University
Derby	Roehampton
Dundee	Royal Holloway
Durham	Sheffield
Edge Hill	Solent
Essex	Southampton
Exeter	St Mary's
Falmouth	Strathclyde
Gapforce (gap year opportunities)	Surrey
Glasgow	Sussex
Goldsmiths	Swansea
Green River College, USA	University Arts London
Hertfordshire	University of the Creative Arts
Hull	UCFB
Hult International Business School	University of Law
Kent	University of West London
Kingston	Warwick
Lancaster	Westminster
Lincoln	Winchester
Liverpool	York
Liverpool John Moores

The following universities were invited but were unable to attend:

Aston	Leicester
Bournemouth	Liverpool Hope
Cambridge	Oxford
Edinburgh	Queen's Belfast
Fashion Retail Academy	Salford
Imperial College	Ulster
Leeds	University of the West of England, Bristol