'Next steps' fair – Wednesday 27 April

- Next Wednesday Esher College will host the 'Next Steps' event for year 10 students at the 5 Elmbridge secondary schools.
- A number of local and national employers attend this event.
- Esher students are invited to drop in during their lunchtime or free periods and discuss the employment and apprenticeship opportunities available

Progression Guidance staff

- Drop in to R105 – but don't expect us to do your application for you!
- Read the Progression Bulletin and use Unifrog for vacancies
- If a 6.2, ask to join the Apprenticeship team (progression@esher.ac.uk)

Amazing apprenticeships parents' packs

- This organisation produces support materials for students and parents.
- The most recent parents' pack can be downloaded here: Resources for parents and guardians \(apprenticeships.gov.uk\)

'Rate my apprenticeship' handbook

- This organisation surveys apprentices and compiles league tables of good apprenticeship providers.
- Students can call in to the PG office and pick up a hard copy of the handbook, or you can view a condensed version here:
<https://www.ratemyapprenticeship.co.uk/top-employers>

After Esher Day for 6.1 students (7 July)

- Choose the Employment Seekers Programme
- The session is designed to give students a realistic 'Assessment Centre' experience
- It will include psychometric testing and competency questions
- Interview and presentation techniques
- Opportunities for feedback

Career Development progression pathway

- One of the options for 6.2 enrichment
- An 'extension study' – 1 taught and one research period / week
- Career focused activities, talks and workshops
- Time to complete apprenticeship applications
